

The Central Region Partnership on Aging and Developmental Disabilities (CRPADD) presents:

UNDERSTANDING DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

A four part comprehensive virtual seminar to enhance your understanding and appreciation for the unique needs of people with Developmental Disabilities.

IT'S FREE!

To register for all four sessions RSVP to:
officeadmin@pclkw.org

(sessions will be recorded if you can't attend all 4 on the day they are presented)

SESSION-1

June 2, 9 a.m. - noon

<-PRESENTERS->

MARK BENNER,
(BA, BSW, MSW)
Professor - DSW
Program - Fanshawe
College

KAREN KLEE
(M.ED, RN)
Academic Coordinator
and Professor
DSW Program
Fanshawe College

- Common type of disabilities.
- Holistic strategies of support
- Behavioural Phenotypes
- Syndrome driven behaviours

SESSION-2

June 9, 9 a.m. - noon

<-PRESENTERS->

MARK BENNER,
(BA, BSW, MSW)
Professor - DSW
Program - Fanshawe
College

KAREN KLEE
(M.ED, RN)
Academic Coordinator
and Professor
DSW Program
Fanshawe College

- Challenging behaviour and dual diagnosis.
- Characteristics and indicators
- Unique support intervention
- Healthcare support and PRN medication.

SESSION-3 PART:1

June 16, 9 a.m. - noon

NANCY GILCHRIST

(DSO Manager, Central West Region)

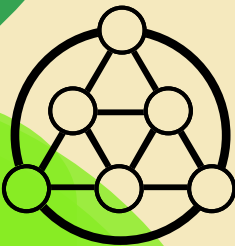

- Information on DSO services
- Assessment for services
- Getting a diagnosis
- Available supports

SESSION-3 PART:2

PREETHI KNIGHT MULAKA,
(RN, BScN)

(Health Care Facilitator-Waterloo/Wellington/Dufferin
Central West Network of Specialized Care)

- Accessing LHIN for transition to facilities.
- Collaboration amongst sectors
- New transition document by Behavioural supports Ontario Team.

SESSION-4

June 23, 9 a.m. - noon

PRESENTER: ANDREA RUTHERFORD, (Professor and Program Coordinator
- Developmental Services Worker
Program - Humber College)
(RN, MScN)

- Factors affecting health and well-being of individuals aging with a Developmental Disability.
- Pharmacological interventions (including psychotropic medication)
 - Impacts of illness, pain and medication side effects on behaviour.
- Supports and interventions aimed at improving care and quality of life.
- Age progression in Developmental Disability and adjustments in care plans.
- Working within interdisciplinary teams and collaboration within inter-sectoral teams.

